

World Thalassaemia Day

World Thalassaemia Day :
A day to raise awareness of the disease and to support patients and their families.

World Thalassaemia Day is a day to raise awareness of the disease and to support patients and their families. It is a day to share experiences and to learn from each other.

World Thalassaemia Day is a day to raise awareness of the disease and to support patients and their families. It is a day to share experiences and to learn from each other. World Thalassaemia Day is a day to raise awareness of the disease and to support patients and their families. It is a day to share experiences and to learn from each other.

World Thalassaemia Day is a day to raise awareness of the disease and to support patients and their families. It is a day to share experiences and to learn from each other.