New born baby trying to open his eyes, overcoming the barrier of unpractised light tried, worried, curious face around him.
Virulent smell of corpsing flying in the air that air bind along soft throttle.
Haphazard bustle of human glaxis white and black smoke together making cloud.
Carrying the rest part of beloved home-long line of persecuted human, long line determining the atrocity revenge in back and barrier of low in front.
When humanity trampled in Moger Mulluk then depredations of vultures in the sky.
Hundred hands of hungry human-racing towards the packet of food which lose the fight of dogs.
Nuf's womb filled with stupas of corpsing colourless water becoming red.
Suu kyi's hyena coming with a black look capable leave the place fear of life only new mother and new born baby helpless hyena's glee Rohingya and Rohingya's cub new born baby, is your name Rohingya?
