

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK OFFICE OF THE STATE COMPTROLLER

The University of the State of New York is a public institution of higher learning. It is the responsibility of the State Comptroller to ensure that the University's financial affairs are properly managed and that the State's funds are used efficiently and effectively. The Comptroller will conduct a comprehensive audit of the University's financial records for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2023. This audit will cover all financial transactions, including revenue, expenses, and capital assets. The Comptroller will also review the University's internal controls and financial reporting systems to ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations. The results of the audit will be reported to the State Comptroller and the State Legislature.

The University of the State of New York is a public institution of higher learning. It is the responsibility of the State Comptroller to ensure that the University's financial affairs are properly managed and that the State's funds are used efficiently and effectively. The Comptroller will conduct a comprehensive audit of the University's financial records for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2023. This audit will cover all financial transactions, including revenue, expenses, and capital assets. The Comptroller will also review the University's internal controls and financial reporting systems to ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations. The results of the audit will be reported to the State Comptroller and the State Legislature.

The University of the State of New York is a public institution of higher learning. It is the responsibility of the State Comptroller to ensure that the University's financial affairs are properly managed and that the State's funds are used efficiently and effectively. The Comptroller will conduct a comprehensive audit of the University's financial records for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2023. This audit will cover all financial transactions, including revenue, expenses, and capital assets. The Comptroller will also review the University's internal controls and financial reporting systems to ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations. The results of the audit will be reported to the State Comptroller and the State Legislature.

The University of the State of New York is a public institution of higher learning. It is the responsibility of the State Comptroller to ensure that the University's financial affairs are properly managed and that the State's funds are used efficiently and effectively. The Comptroller will conduct a comprehensive audit of the University's financial records for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2023. This audit will cover all financial transactions, including revenue, expenses, and capital assets. The Comptroller will also review the University's internal controls and financial reporting systems to ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations. The results of the audit will be reported to the State Comptroller and the State Legislature.

